Petition dt 18/4/33 from the Sri Yatiraja swami. requesting definite orders for performing the Dasha Parangana etc. as usual on the Rathotsava day in connection with Sri Ramanujacharya's Tirunakshatram.

It is reported that it is ordered that the Dasha should not be performed at the Yatiraj matt (where the Murti of Sri Ramanuja is Consecrated) on the Rathotsava day in connection with Sri Ramanujacharya's Tirunakshatram Date for orders. The Swami wants summary orders for the performance of the Dance.

The prayer of the Swamigalu is that he may be permitted to offer abhishekam to the "Utsava idol" of Sri Ramanujacharya in the Sri Yathiraja Mutt at Melkote in connection with the annual Tirunakshatram celebrations, as per mamool. It is now reported that this question has already been fully gone into in 1922-23 by the Munsif Commissioner, who apparently acting under the instructions of Govt communicated to him in Munsif Sey's letter dated 3.5.22 in this behalf, inforced the D.C elsewhere that the order of the Munsif Sudder of 6th August 1874, directing the non-performance of abhisheka to utsava vigrahas outside the temple precincts, should be continued in full force and effect and that no departure from this practice should be allowed until such time as the Contending parties arrive at a Compromise.
